

ST MARTIN'S DAY, ŠMARTNO 2014, from 6 to 9 November 2014

Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday

This beautiful autumn holiday is one of the best opportunities for pleasant gatherings and tastings of autumn delicacies in the Brda winegrowing region. What was once a time for pagan thanksgiving and feasts, is now a time for experiencing diverse colours, smells and tastes, especially those connected to wine. You are kindly invited to get to know Šmartno, wine-makers from the Brda region and genuine culinary specialties in the magical atmosphere of this unique village.

Thursday, 6 November Premieres in Slovenia	House of Culture, Harry Manx Concert The "Mysticssippi" musician is often characterised as the key link that connects the music of the East and West, since he creates short musical stories that combine blues tradition and the depth of classical Indian music. He creates a unique sound, his music is extremely interesting and unforgettable.
